

Writing Skills Course Online via Zoom

Thurs 16 July - Thurs 17 September
9:30am - 1pm | Cost: $110 Aust.Citizen/Perm.Res

If you have always wanted to write this is the class for you! If you have a novel in a drawer or write poems on your phone or you are interested in writing a memoir, then join us online to get ideas on how to bring your writing out into the light of day. You will be in a friendly and supportive group who will inspire and motivate you to keep a creative life alive. Your tutor will have examples of contemporary and classic writing to discuss and learn about different ways to engage your audience. You will be taught writing techniques and given writing prompts to get you going. Have your pen and paper and an open mind ready and be prepared to be challenged and extended. You can share your work to obtain constructive feedback on how to develop it, if and when you are ready.

Please book with reception to receive the Zoom link, instructions and guidelines.
